I am Calling on The Hundred Plus

spoken by Kalindi on June 26, 2009

I believe really strongly and I know very strongly about the Hundredth Monkey theory. And that's why first of all Gourasana talked about the hundred people that needed to have unshakable faith for this Mission to go around the world, and that's what we were doing for like the first ten years, is having those hundred people come up into knowing for certain about the Incarnation in their heart, unshakably.

So that's been accomplished and now what needs to happen is those hundred people have to surrender – let go, give up and surrender and come into their awakening, come into the light. Because it was said a while ago by me that those hundred people were to go to San Francisco and stand on that stage fully awakened in the light. And once a hundred people have made it, then it will just move through the Mission really fast and also it'll just move outward, and the people will feel it and they'll start looking for it, because it'll just happen.

Just like when I started the SAC System with the bags and the communication system and everything that you need in your purse, and all the little things. Remember when we started it, we had to put our own lotion into our own little bottles, you know and we had the find little plastic bottles to put shampoo in. Everything that we wanted in a little form we had to figure out how to get it into a little form. And within one year . . . and that was really hard to get everyone – very hard to get everyone to realize why we needed the little things. That was very hard. It took us like six months of struggle to get like a hundred people to get it. And once we got it, after that six months we went to the stores and they started making all those little things. They didn't used to have them. And now you can go out there and all the little things that you need for your bags are already now made. Plus even more things that, you know, we didn't even know that we needed are now made out there.

So there's a very real power in the Hundred Plus theory. So that means that the 100+ that were destined to make it – and I don't know who they are. A lot of them were here with Gourasana and most of them have a personal connection with me. And I want ask them now, it's time to let go, give up, surrender. You've been here for so many years. There's, like, no excuse. It's just make a decision: "Okay, I'm going to do it now. I'm going to let go, give up, surrender, period. Here I go."

And it's as easy as that, because fifteen years of this kind of work, or twelve years, there's no reason anymore for people to just not make it. It's a matter of, "I'm going to surrender now. I'm going to just drop it all and I'm going to surrender. I don't know how I'm going to make it, but I am going to just surrender." And if people will do that sincerely and pull apart the illusion and the ego from the true being, pull it apart, then it's very easy to see. "Oh, that's not me, and that's not me, and that's not me, okay. I'm letting it go, I don't want it. It's not me, I'm not going to keep it" – with all of that, and start to get ready. Say to yourself, "Okay, I'm one of the next ones. I've already been here for twelve years, then for sure I could do it in a year." And the world needs those hundred people.

Gourasana said, "We need those hundred people that are going to take it around the world." Simply, like that. So we've been just working for those hundred people, and that's why there's not such an emphasis from all of the people to go out, because the people are trying to, like, break free, but at their own slow pace. They're in and out. They won't really do it.

Just do it – let go, give up surrender – now. And I'm just calling you now. Now there's 200+ that committed their self and I have seventy-eight new disciples, what to speak of the other disciples.

So there's well over a hundred people that said, "Yes." Plus the Directors. We have those hundred people that when they hear this tape should be saying "Yes." And put your foot down to the illusion and put your hand up to God, two hands up. "Okay, yes this is it, now I am going to let go of all this nonsense – everything, all the desires for, you know, material whatever. I'm saying yes and I'm getting myself out of this illusion and I'm going to surrender to God and I'm going to go now."

Because if we don't do that, the energy from the Hundred Plus theory can't move through the Mission and out into the world. So that's what's wrong here, is that those that are supposed to break free are not doing their part. They're scared, they're this, they're that – their job, their money . . .

You all, people that I'm talking about, do what you have to do, whatever it is, that is stopping you or holding you back. You have to now come forward and let it be known that you are one of the next – you don't know how you're going to do it – but you are indeed one of the next ones within a year that you are going to be one of those 100+. That you know Gourasana wants you to be that, that you came here to do that – to be one of those one hundred in order to move the whole collective consciousness of this world, that we have to do now. One hundred. Through the Ashram, up into the light and then after that, then you have to stay in the light. Then you stay in the light and then you walk Home.

And that's how the people are going to come. Because when a hundred people are in the light and staying in the light, who knows what God is going to have – all of those people are going to come up with their destiny, who knows what it is. It's not even that, but it's just the consciousness of the whole Mission is going to rise and the rest of the Mission is just going to start, "I'm letting go now, I'm going through, I'm going through, I'm going through, I'm going through," because they can't stand it. They're just going to be surrounded by so much light and those hundred people are going to lift up the consciousness of the Mission.

So for the rest of the people, it's not going to be so hard. And then it's just going to come out – just out of the Mission and through into the world, into the collective consciousness. And people will start to see the light and the love that's coming out of this Mission. This is mandatory. And it's a mandatory element of Come to God.

So, no matter how long you've been here, if you feel like you are one of the ones that Gourasana has said, inside of you, "You have to do this now. You have to do this now." You always knew you had to do it now, but the illusion has just pulled you every different which way and you just have been lazy, you've been in fear, whatever it's been.

But I am calling to the 100+. And I don't even know who the full 100+ are – there might be others that were too afraid. So I'm calling for one hundred. Let's go now into the light – out of the illusion, into the light. Let's go – now. We are at the end of the time that we cannot wait any longer for anybody to do it slow or hanging around or thinking about this or that. Just, "Okay, I'm coming now. I don't even know how I'm coming, but I'm coming now." And then you'll be given the help that you need in order to make it in this short time.

So thank you all very much for everything that you are all doing to help God's Mission.
