This Mission is going to be accomplished by love and for love, for the Father, who is love. From that, He will show the way and the means to have everything that we need to do His Mission.

But if you start out having a meeting that the center point of it is pivoted on money, you're not going to get very far. Because the center point of your meeting has to be God, the Father, Gourasana.

And then you begin to meditate, and you go to Him. And you get with Him very deeply. And you have conversation with Him. And He puts information in you about what to do and what can be done. But you're not thinking about money; you're thinking about what it is that He wants you to do. And when you get it clear what it is that He wants you to do after meditating and after fine-tuning the intent, then it's going to start to open up and open up and open up like a flower, and everything will be fine. If you start the meetings and start the projects with money first, you haven't turned to your Father at all. So you men that leave it unto yourself to solve the problem – and you won't ever solve anything. It's the Father all the way. It's the Father all the way.

And I know there's big corporate men that can come in here and say, "Oh you guys, what are you doing? How are you running this business? What are you doing?" Well, we're running this business the way the Father needs it to be. He needs it to be this way because what we're going to accomplish is way different and way bigger than what happens on the earth when you run it like a corporation.

He doesn't work that way, because He's jumping from here to there and then over to there and then over to there, because He has a strategy. He's playing chess on the chessboard. We're all the pawns, and we're just jumping around where He needs us to jump at any given time. And it's not in cement when certain things are going to happen exactly. There might be three or four things that we didn't know about that are going to happen right before the grand slam. And so we're kind of blinded before the grand slam. And before we know it, here came the grand slam and we didn't even get a chance to think about it. It just happened.

It's God's magical Mission.

And is money needed? Yes. Where is the money? It's around. And it's not going to show its face until just the right time for exactly the purpose He wants.

So that's going to mean a lot of prayer and a lot of questioning of God and hearing from God, "Do this way, do that way." That's why there needs to be a lot of think tanks. So, God – you know – there's four people there, maybe between one or two people they start talking and all the sudden God starts, like, dumping information through one of them.

So trust in the Lord with all of your heart and all of your mind. He's going to show you how to run a Mission that will get into this world by the time we die – the first generation – that it'll be solid in the world for the second and third and possibly the fourth generation, strong. Strong – so that it'll go on.

And that will mean of course many people will have to sacrifice their life in order for this Mission to work, complete sacrifice. And those people that going to do that are saints that have come here. They were with Jesus and they have come here now in order to fulfill the Mission of God that was started by Jesus and will end with the Father coming and those saints coming back again to finish up what needs to be finished on this earth. And we are here, and the saints will do it again, and the others will follow and have incredible happiness having found God.
