

Living God-Consciousness – 30-Day+ Transformative Experience

God-Consciousness in Your Closet and with Your Clothes

Introduction

For the next two weeks, we are going to continue working on bringing beauty, love, God-Consciousness and Presence to every aspect of our lives.

This week we are focusing on our closets. You might notice that the process of change is becoming more and more intimate. Our closet and clothes can be a very intimate expression of who we are – of how we feel about ourselves. Do we like/love ourselves? Do we care? Do we live in freedom or in shame, hiding? Do we dare to manifest our uniqueness and beauty? If your answer is "not quite"... well, you have now in front of you a very practical opportunity to start changing.

Please know that since the beginning of this Transformative Experience you are receiving a lot of information that is not just practical, but that it is transforming you at a deep level. It will take time to assimilate and put it all into practice.

You are basically changing the way you look at everything around you, from your refrigerator to your clothes, and learning to apply the principles of God-Consciousness to everything. You are re-wiring yourself. Be patient, stay open, and keep learning how to live in God's flow.

Today is going to be a two-step process, and the key is TRUST.

The first step of this process is cleaning out and letting go of the old – specifically that part of the "old you" that has been hiding in your closet and in some of your old clothes.

The second step is a surprise. TRUST. Letting of the old means moving into the unknown and unfamiliar. Starting today you will be preparing, internally and externally, a space that can be filled by God's love and abundance, in a very practical way. This will happen throughout these next two weeks, and of course at the Closing Event and at Kalindi Mart.

How can you make your closet into a sanctuary where you can feel God? ...and wear clothes that help express your beauty?

We start by using the same basic principles of God-Consciousness that we listed before:

Principles

- Simplicity: Have what you need – not more, not less. Get rid of things that make your closet cluttered. Take out of your closet and put aside clothes that you don't use or that are not uplifting. We will give you suggestions on how to do this.
- Care: Look at your closet and clothes from the perspective of care and love for yourself.
- Gratitude and Change: Always be grateful for what you have, and be ready to move with God's flow – which means change.
- Letting Go; Trusting God's Abundance: For something new to happen to you, even for the right new beautiful clothes to find their way to your closet (something that will happen at the closing event and at Kalindi Mart), you have to be willing to let go of what is old and very practically create space in your closet.
- Beauty and Calm: Your closet can be beautiful in a devotional way, and radiate calm instead of clutter and rush. And of course your clothes can be simple but beautiful, which means that you feel beautiful and worthy when you wear them.
- Cleanliness, Organization and Efficiency: You have been experiencing what these three qualities mean during the last two weeks, so you have a sense already of how to apply them to your closet. We will give you suggestions and the Fairies will help you.
- Living Awake: This is a way you can choose to live every single day of your life. Even more than other areas, your clothes will change, because once you are in God's flow, YOU change. And so your closet will change. If at the beginning this might seem uncomfortable or challenging, we assure you that you will come to just love it, and love yourself more and more.
