

Nothing is Impossible with God
Spoken by Kalindi on January 11, 2007

There is never anything that is impossible to accomplish – nothing. Because, as you and God stand together with you and your neighbor with His energy focused on this one thing, it is going to happen. You just have to sit and become calm and just be thinking, the answer is going to come. It may be a whole different way of looking at it but you have to be open to that. You have to be open to that your whole mountain is going to crash the way you have been thinking about it because the way you have been thinking about it is not working out. So Gourasana knows what is going on he is hearing all of you. He is going to make it clear and there is nothing impossible not one thing. You have to remember that because if anyone ever feels defeated that is the illusion talking.

That's really the only way the illusion can bother us now is to slow us down Make one of the leaders get like.... The whole mission went crazy when G'Angela left and everybody freaking "I can't do it. We don't know how to do it." So we don't know what is going to be happening. We are never in trouble, you know. There are telephones to stay in contact with each other. There are leaders to do phone calls. Each individual house knows how to work with each other and knows how to do meditations. And you can get two houses to get together at once and you can all eat the same kind of food: rice and dahl, rice and beans and some kind of lettuce and then some whole cereal. Make sure everybody goes to the bathroom inspire all involved. And go to eat at the center, everybody congregates at the center to get their meals.

We can come down to such a simple living, so don't be afraid of the money. The worst that is going to happen is everyone is going to live with not having any bills. They are all going to go bankrupt and turn around and live ashram-style. That is how those Hari Krishna people did it. Everybody lived ashram-style and they didn't have anything extra. Not anything, there was no opulence. I mean, there was an opulence, they had silk ropes and silk saris but there was no painting your fingernails or wearing makeup or using certain soaps. It was all very generic and cost the least amount as possible.

You are going to come up to some roadblocks that are just going to be...you have to remember that Gourasana is a bandit in the night. He just sits out there waiting and watching, waiting and watching, watching and waiting. Watching, looking waiting until...there is the crack. And just run around the corner and running. Don't even think about it and just go for it. And you might be sneaking around saying this person to that and that and that until a group of ten people run out of the house for their life and you guys make a plan lets meet at the Howard Johnson's and get the hell out of this mess in this mission. We have to get out. The illusion has completely captured the whole mission we got to get out of here, lets go and do a think tank let s get out go, as soon as you feel that get out because if you don't then you wont go fast enough in order to get the 10 of you out of there, the illusion will stop someone and the think tank will stop. Do you understand? Get out go to another town, get a couple of hotel rooms lets sit there and be with each other until all the different problems start to get writing down until you guys can figure out what is it. And don't worry how many of these think tanks you guys have to have, you have as many as you need to have. Don't let anything go that feels like: Wait a minute, something does not feel right and we passed it. We passed it to go forward and we might have passed something that was not accurate Do you understand. Will you guys do that for me?
