God Is All There Is

spoken by Kalindi on January 8, 2010

Listen very, very carefully to what I'm going to say to you. This is something that is said over and over again in various ways, various paths, various religions. But it is not penetrating to the depth where it can be understood by the mind.

God is the way. He is moving everything in a certain way. His way is the way. His way is the direction. His way is the passage. "Thy will" – "Thy will" is the way.

He will direct your way completely. He will tell you and guide you which way to go and what to do. He will just drop it into the field above your mind and it will just "boom," come in. Not through your intuition, but through your openness and your trust and your still mind, He directs the way.

There is a God. And the more we move with the material mind and the separate will, the more everything does not work.

There is a state of consciousness in your surrender to God from a real place where He has the answers. And through meditation you can get access to those answers. And just in your life – once you're with Him fully – once you learn to let go, give up and surrender, stop fighting the flow, stop the fight against Him and His way, stop fighting for your own separate will and separate ways and separate ideas and find Him – really, not sentimentally, not because you believe in Him – but you really find Him, He holds the answers. He is the way. He. Not you. Not even your true being. Not even your real self. He, and only He.

And it's like "Thy Kingdom Come" on top of your head. It just – "boom," there it is. And the more you rely on your own, for your own separate will, because you want it this way or this way or that way, you will never find the kingdom that is right here, right now.

And I'm trying to say this because this is the highest truth. God is all there is. God is real. God is the Source. God is very active. And man chooses to walk away from the Source. And man doesn't even remember that there is a Source of everything.

How bizarre. Lifetime after lifetime of separate will. And what has that separate will done but caused separation, separation, separation, and no love. No love, no love, no love, no love. Fighting, fighting, war, war, unhappiness, drugs.

Look at the children. Just look at the children. Look at the children of today. They are so mixed up. They have no basis. They have no God. This is a world without God. There are belief systems, there are religions, but there is no real connect to what I'm talking about, and the true love of God, the union – union – the knowing.

This is the problem on planet Earth. And planet Earth is now going to have an upheaval. And I just want to get across the point, "There is such a thing as God. G-O-D. He is real. He is vast. He is omnipotent, omni, omni, omni, omni, omni<sup>1</sup>." He is that. And with all of that, your little "whatever you need" – you think it's so great – you have to sit and figure out so many things – but God has it in His hand, all the answers. But you turn to your own little separate ways, and He can't reach you. You've forgotten Him. You want to be your own king in your own kingdom on planet Earth.

When are you going to wake up? When are you going to understand that God is all there is? And God wants to give you everything. But you have to come to God. You have to walk to God. You have to let go of what keeps you separate from Him. But He does indeed rule everything. And if you insist on wanting to just go play in this playground which is rotten – it is just rotten – a world with no love . . . I'm trying to tell you God has the love, God has the truth, God has the knowledge, God has the energy, God has everything for you. Why don't you come back to God? That's the only reality. God is all there is. You don't have to live without God. And I'm not talking about a belief system, I'm talking about the very real reality – the very real reality of God.

If it's true what I'm saying, don't you want to know?

Start to open your heart and start to, like, talk to God: "God, okay, I need You. If You're such a thing, and I need You. Then if You're such a thing, if You're there, I'm sorry I don't remember You, but I want to know You." Just start to talk to God. And once you start, don't stop. You don't need any books, you don't need any belief, you just need to start: open your heart, start to talk, and start to pray.
