
Jesus in the Marketplace

spoken by Kalindi on November 25, 2006

(Kalindi spoke this talk while walking on a treadmill, which you hear in the background in the audio version.)

I am a Modern-day Master, Voice of God: Don't be afraid to say "Voice of God." What that means is that I am speaking on behalf of God. I am speaking on behalf of God. That makes me different from all the rest of these people who are claiming to be masters and enlightenment masters, and all these people who are doing all these things. I am different.

I am very different from all of these masters, new-age masters, enlightenment gurus. I am speaking truth on behalf of God. That makes me the Voice of God. So if anybody wants to know, "What does that mean, 'Voice of God'? Why is she saying 'Voice of God'?" it's because she is speaking on behalf of God. She is speaking truths that God wants spoken in this modern day and age. And if that frightens any of you . . . I have to come out like that.

And are they going to think it is a cult? Yes. So let's get on with it. We are a cult. Everything is a cult. Every one of those enlightened masters is a cult. Every one of those gurus is a cult. But yet they come out and thousands of people come to them.

And you wonder, "Why aren't we getting bigger?" Because we're not coming out with who I am. We are not just saying it. We are so afraid – Oh, my God." But I need to come out. I need to speak. And I'm coming out of the box that everyone is trying to keep me in. I am out of the box. I'm out of the box, and I'm going to speak the truth that this earth needs to hear – Spiritual Master, modern-day Spiritual Master for the World and Voice of God – with The Lady, modern-day Spiritual Master for the World speaking truth for this day and age. We are a cult.

We are all trying to find the pure love of God. And we are all trying to get freer and freer and closer to God every day. And many of us are trying to break the cycle of birth and death, which means no rebirth, no more reincarnation.

The Lady and myself have come to our own state of self-realization and masterhood through the assistance and guidance and energy – assistance and great power of the current-day Incarnation of God, Lord Gourasana, The Golden One. He died in 1995, leaving behind the greatest power from God that has ever been known to mankind for those who are searching for what this path has to offer. And His energy is being brought in through the Heavenly Host and continues to magnify and intensify all throughout the world to help everyone, all the suffering souls of this world. The prayer of mankind is being answered by God.

Who will do the spiritual work necessary? Who is ready to turn to God, and transform themselves to become a beacon of light in this world – selfless service with the great compassion of God?

And for those looking for real enlightenment, these are Masters who can guide you to real enlightenment, not a state of enlightenment that will come and then will disappear because it is only a state of enlightenment. It is not the eternal state of enlightenment. But these Masters will guide you. And through your work and your letting go and your facing the death of the ego, the annihilation of the false self through the mighty help of the assistance of God – special assistance and special guidance, you can succeed in achieving ultimate freedom and no rebirth.

And on your path, you will achieve becoming freer and freer every day and coming closer and closer to God and His love every day of your life. And you will be able to give and share that love with others and help in this suffering world of humankind that is a world without love. It is a world that knows no respect, no care, and no love, practically speaking.

And this world is headed for great trouble. And the answer is for everyone to turn to God in prayer, the one God of us all. It matters not what you call that God – be it Allah, be it

Jesus, be it Krishna, be it Buddha, be it Father, be it Gourasana, be it Chaitanya. Whatever the name you want to call it, so be it. It is all the same one Source coming into this world, all over the world, with different faces and different names – trying to help people in their own language, in the way that they are at the time, trying to give the message to love God, to love one another.

And it (people with lack of love) continue to turn against one another, and that has got to end. And this world is ready to strike out and kill off each other completely if it does not come to its knees in prayer to the Almighty Supreme, the Father, the Almighty of us all, the Source, the One – call it what you may. We are all brothers and sisters under one God.

And that message is trying to be delivered through the current-day Incarnation of God, Gourasana, through those who are traveling this path and transforming desperately and urgently to help themselves to find the love of God, the love of self. And to reach out widely to help mankind, to love thy neighbor as thyself as God loves.

What is the use of this silly fantasy of going to some enlightenment guru and achieving some state of enlightenment for yourself, just to dream off into never-never land? It is not enlightenment. It is of the ego. It is a self-satisfying thing. It is not a true enlightened state. It is a state along the way. And it goes away. Don't you know by now?

True enlightenment means the death of the ego, and there is no short cut. There is no short cut. There is a sacrifice to be made. There is a transformation to go through. There is a bleeding of the heart. There is a true compassion to be found, compassion of the Lord. Compassion.

Why cheat yourself by going from enlightenment guru to enlightenment guru to enlightenment guru, and following path after path after path after path, only to come up short again and again and again and again? And then you finally just say, "Forget it. None of it works. And I have even been born again, and that did not work." Why not enter into real transformation from Masters who have walked the path of fire under the guidance of an Incarnation of God who has brought the incredible power needed to strip away the illusion and the shackles that bind everyone to this illusory world of duality and suffering?

Yes, there is some happiness here. But it is very little compared to the suffering. And if I can ask you for one moment to just put aside the happiness that you think you have and look starkly into the world and visit all the suffering that is going on and visit the condition of the world at large.

Visit the catastrophes that are about to happen. What are we going to do? What practically has been planned? Who is getting ready to help each other? And who is getting ready to just help yourself? And who is even thinking to even help yourself? And who is sitting around blaming God: “There can be no God. If this is going on, then I do not believe in God. I am angry at God, and I will not pray to God. If there is a God, He has a lot to answer to.”

Well, be that as it may, there is a Supreme something. And we are here. And we have been given hearts that can give love – if we dare to feel the pain. And we have been given intelligence. And we have been given intuition. And it is time to lift the dark cloud off of all of that so we can tap into what God has given us – or if you want to say “the Source of us all.” And once we tap into that, after the cloud of darkness is lifted, then we will find something that will help us to use our God-given tools to help ourselves and help mankind. And as we transform ourselves, more and more love will come to this God-forsaken world.

And for those who are ready, real enlightenment can be achieved, and “no rebirth” can be found. And those people who do that will become leaders in this world to help people to lift the dark clouds off of their own heart, so that they can help in this world.

Who are the ones who will travel the way to full enlightenment? Who are they? And I am calling to them. “Who are you?” And I dare you now to come and begin, or hasten, your way, because it is something that takes time. And if you are getting older, and you have been searching for the truth, for union with the Lord, for union with the Source, for the truth, for the world, whatever it is – Come! You can listen to my teachings. You can read my books.

And if you want a kick-start, which I suggest to all of you, and if you are afraid, then come to The Intensive¹ because it is not so scary. But if you are dead serious, if you are dead serious, find your way in to The Lady, so you can get going at a rapid speed, because this world is in bad shape. And everyone needs to wake up. Wake up! And I kid you not. Wake up!

And people may say, “Oh, Kalindi, you can’t put this talk out to the world. People are going to be so afraid. They are never going to come if you speak like this.” But who is going to speak like this? I am not looking for a group of people who are just going to sit around and worship me, or sit around and – just sit around and worship some enlightenment guru. I am looking for the people who are going to help in this world. I am looking for the people who are going to spread the love of God. I am looking for the serious people in this world. And I am talking like this because I am serious.

And there is background noise on this talk. Excuse me, because I am walking on the treadmill. And I did not know that I would speak to you now.

And I am not trying to be fancy, and have a lot of money, and have crystals all around me, and big churches. I am not going to do that. And this Mission that I am here to do, it may not get very big like the hundreds of thousands of people who are fooled by the enlightenment gurus, fooled again and again. But I am very serious. And I have just begun to talk.

It is very serious now. And I have been waiting more than twenty years to speak this to all of you who will hear. I am not a phony. I am the real thing, as real as you are ever going to find. And I am also not saying that there are [not] others. There are others that are also working desperately to get this light into the world. Find them. Find the light workers. Find the light workers. Find the light workers. Find the real light workers.

The enlightenment dream is a dream. And real enlightenment is possible. But there is no way around the transformation. Read The Prophet “On Love,” because you will have to go through that to find the pure love of God. And that love of God is what everyone truly, truly wants – that love. And that is what is missing in this world. And when that true love is found of God, the one Source of all, then the world may have a chance. And we need to start now.

And I hope someone in the White House and in that political field can hear me. I know you talk to the Dalai Lama, and you talk to the Pope, and you talk to other spiritual leaders. But I tell you now that if you want to understand what is needed in this world, you are going to have to – at some point – one of you is going to have to talk to Kalindi. There are things that you need to know that are not being spoken to you about what is going to happen in this world. And I pray and I hope, and I know God in some way is getting through to some of you. And it is not about politics. It is about the love of God, and the compassion for humankind all over the world.

And again, I'm sorry for the quality of this talk. And I do not believe I will be able to duplicate this talk. Thank you for listening.
